

LAST CALL

—ON—

Ladies' Two-Piece Suits, Jumper Suits and Princess Dresses

We are going to close these out Saturday at Less than Wholesale Prices. You cannot afford to let this opportunity pass as it will pay any lady to purchase one of these dresses at the prices named below even if they do not want it until next summer.

One lot $4.39 and $5.00 Dresses, going at	$2.98
One lot 3.50 and 3.98 Dresses, going at	2.49
One lot 2.98 Dresses, going at	1.87
One lot 2.25 Dresses, going at	1.49

These goods were all this Spring's styles but we need the room for new Fall goods and must close them out Saturday, September 18.

The Homer Fitts Company

You Will Find New Fall Styles in Ladies' and Children's Shoes Here.

GENTLEMEN---Ask to See Our Trophy Shoes

for Fall. They are beauties at the price, $4.00.

BARRE SHOE COMPANY

HOME OF GOOD SHOES.

A splendid stock of Men's Shoes here now to select from, at prices $2 to $5. Let us supply your footwear this fall. Mr. Economical man. A guarantee to give you satisfaction and your full money's worth. Can you get more any place?

Men's Working Shoes, "Wear Proof" Sales, made especially for granite workers, genuine to price shoes for $2.50 here. High topped tan water-proof Hunting Boots, worth $4.00. Friday and Saturday only, $3.75.

Large and varied stock of Shoes for women, $1.50 to $2.50. We sell the well-known $1.50 Flexo Comfort Slippers for $1.25.

Children's Shoes in complete variety. Rubbers for the whole family. Come in today at

The Reliable Shoe Store

John Berinato,
Shoes Carefully and Expertly Repaired.
Basement A. Tomasi Block, Main Street

I Want to Work for You

"Insurance that insures" and Steamship Tickets, "all lines." 15 years' experience. Try my WORK. Office hours until 8:00 p. m. Mondays and Saturdays. Other days until 5 p. m.

N. B. Ballard, Agent,
Tel. 102-11 (C. party) Miles Gr. Bldg.

At THE PAVILION

Roach Bros. Advanced Vaudeville and Pictures

Our Vaudeville for Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Dacey & Donaldson

finest blackface comedy, singing and dancing, also a number of Dutch comedy songs

Falsely Accused

A swell Biograph drama

The Little Soldier

Drama

Sweden—Gotha Canal

Scenic

C. C. Mahoney will sing

"Good Morning Caroline."

ADMISSION: Children, 5 Cents Adults, 10 Cents

PAINTS

We have an almost complete stock of ready mixed House Paints, both inside and outside, also Dry Paints for barns, shops, etc., at very low prices. Many grades best Varnishes for furniture. Inside house finishes for upright work and Harrison Bros. Co. best Floor Varnishes, etc. Colors, dry and in oil, for carriage painting. Bronzes, all colors, dry and in liquid, all at most favorable prices.

L. M. Averill, Up One Flight, Averill Building, Over Barre Times Office.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1909.

Weather Prediction.

Generally fair to-night and Saturday, preceded by showers near the Maine coast to-night; cooler in south and west portions to-night; light variable winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the new coats at Vaughan's. Fruit at cost at the United Fruit Store. Read the adv. of Moore & Owens on page 2.

The new things in hats and caps at Frank McWhorter Co's. Sweet Concord grapes, 14 cents a basket, at the United Fruit Store.

Mrs. Elsie Pollin left to-day for a visit with relatives in Brownington, Me.

Sweet Malaga grapes, 10c per pound, 3 pounds for 25c. United Fruit Store.

Mrs. Joseph Cummings returned last night from a visit in Ogdensburg, N. Y.

Remember, the Standard patterns are among the best, at Perry's. Styles right.

For sale or rent: two-tenement house on Elmwood street. In good repair. W. P. Richardson.

Mrs. Sarah Drew of Cambridge, Mass., arrived in the city last evening for a visit with relatives.

Corn roast to-night at Dewey park. All Rehearsals and Odd Fellows invited. Take 6:45 or 7:15 car.

Miss Una Minard returned to Lake Morey yesterday after a visit at the home of Mrs. Ray Osborne.

Frank J. Deal of Plymouth, N. H., was a visitor in this city yesterday on business and visiting friends.

John E. Hoban went to Claremont, N. H., to-day to spend a few days, expecting to return on Sunday.

Miss Teresa Colombo returned to her home in Hardwick last night after a visit with relatives in this city.

Special meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church at the church this evening at seven o'clock.

Ray Osborne, who has been in Cohasset, Ontario, for some time, is visiting at his home in this city for a few days.

Remember the public dance at M. W. of A. hall, Saturday, Sept. 18; Gilbertson's orchestra; 50c per couple, ladies free.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith went to Montreal to-day, where Mr. Smith will consult a specialist in regard to his health.

You can buy bananas wholesale or retail most reasonable at "Tony's". Barre's oldest wholesale and retail fruit dealer.

Mrs. R. H. Watkins, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodfellow, returned to-day to her home in Lynn, Mass.

James E. Mitchell returned last night from Northfield, where he officiated as a judge of the poultry exhibits at the Dog River Valley fair.

Salem R. Bartlett, son of Mrs. George B. Holmes, went to-day to Dorchester, Mass., for a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Dollop.

All teamsters of the city who are desirous of forming a teamsters' union are requested to meet in Carpenters' hall in the Nichols block at 7:30 Friday evening.

Arthur C. Lane, the local American Express train messenger, has been transferred to White River Junction, to run from the Junction to Burlington for the next four weeks.

The L. C. B. A. will hold their opening dance for this season on Tuesday evening, Sept. 21, in the K. of G. hall. You are cordially invited. Admission, twenty-five cents.

For for sale: 146 acres, good buildings, running water, good orchard, land well divided into tillage and pasturage. Must be sold within 6 weeks. Easy terms. Inquire of A. E. Batchelder, Barre tel. 240.

Plenty of new toys and notions at our store. "Imported" shipments of holiday goods are daily arriving and are being displayed as space will admit. We had "just as lives" sell now as to hold until Christmas. C. N. Kenyon & Co., cash bargain store.

"The House of a Thousand Candles" that is announced for next Monday evening at the opera house, is one of the surprises of the season. It is a clever dramatization from the novel of the same name, a fact that is arousing general attention, as the story is among the most widely read of any of the popular books of the day. All the strange and unusual happenings related in Meredith Nicholson's clever story have been retained, making it a play of surprises and absorbing interest.

Angus A. Smith returned last night from a six months' visit in California, Seattle, Wash., and through the Canadian Northwest. He visited for several weeks in the great Canadian wheat belt country, and reports that the crop is considered to be very good this year. He states that he was very much taken with that part of the country and that no one can have any idea of the extent and resources of this great prairie, which is as level as a floor, and wheat fields stretch for hundreds of miles, until they once visit it.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Hot baths at the Hotel Otis every day. Infants' dresses at Perry's, a good line.

Fall wrappers and house dresses just in at Perry's.

Bananas, 15c per dozen, best bananas 18c per dozen. United Fruit Store.

E. A. Bugbee left last night on a four weeks' business trip through the Middle-West.

C. F. Miller returned last night from Burlington, where he went to attend the annual meeting of the Vermont Electrical association.

Remember the public dance at M. W. of A. hall, Saturday, Sept. 18; Gilbertson's orchestra; 50c per couple, ladies free.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith went to Montreal to-day, where Mr. Smith will consult a specialist in regard to his health.

You can buy bananas wholesale or retail most reasonable at "Tony's". Barre's oldest wholesale and retail fruit dealer.

Mrs. R. H. Watkins, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodfellow, returned to-day to her home in Lynn, Mass.

James E. Mitchell returned last night from Northfield, where he officiated as a judge of the poultry exhibits at the Dog River Valley fair.

Salem R. Bartlett, son of Mrs. George B. Holmes, went to-day to Dorchester, Mass., for a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Dollop.

All teamsters of the city who are desirous of forming a teamsters' union are requested to meet in Carpenters' hall in the Nichols block at 7:30 Friday evening.

Arthur C. Lane, the local American Express train messenger, has been transferred to White River Junction, to run from the Junction to Burlington for the next four weeks.

The L. C. B. A. will hold their opening dance for this season on Tuesday evening, Sept. 21, in the K. of G. hall. You are cordially invited. Admission, twenty-five cents.

For for sale: 146 acres, good buildings, running water, good orchard, land well divided into tillage and pasturage. Must be sold within 6 weeks. Easy terms. Inquire of A. E. Batchelder, Barre tel. 240.

Plenty of new toys and notions at our store. "Imported" shipments of holiday goods are daily arriving and are being displayed as space will admit. We had "just as lives" sell now as to hold until Christmas. C. N. Kenyon & Co., cash bargain store.

"The House of a Thousand Candles" that is announced for next Monday evening at the opera house, is one of the surprises of the season. It is a clever dramatization from the novel of the same name, a fact that is arousing general attention, as the story is among the most widely read of any of the popular books of the day. All the strange and unusual happenings related in Meredith Nicholson's clever story have been retained, making it a play of surprises and absorbing interest.

Angus A. Smith returned last night from a six months' visit in California, Seattle, Wash., and through the Canadian Northwest. He visited for several weeks in the great Canadian wheat belt country, and reports that the crop is considered to be very good this year. He states that he was very much taken with that part of the country and that no one can have any idea of the extent and resources of this great prairie, which is as level as a floor, and wheat fields stretch for hundreds of miles, until they once visit it.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.

Harley Bates, alias Carleton Hall Bates, was arraigned in the city court this morning on the charge of intoxication and pleaded guilty to a second offense. Judge Scott sentenced him to the county jail for 30 days and to pay a fine with costs amounting to $21.24. Bates was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Carle who found him staggering around on Depot square and after he had nearly fallen through the plate glass window at Morrison's cigar store. When Bates was in this court nearly two years ago he gave his name as Carleton Hall Bates, but this morning he claimed his real name was plain Harley Bates. The officers say he had just gotten out of the county jail, where he had been sent by the Montpelier city court.